A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN:

MOHAMMED AL HABTOOR

VICE CHAIRMAN & CEO, AL HABTOOR GROUP
CHAIRMAN, UAE POLO FEDERATION

Welcome back to a new season of the Dubai Polo Gold Cup Series (DPGC).

I am humbled by the success we have achieved since I first established the DPGC, a series of events under one organization over the past 13 years, with the goal of altering the way Polo is played in the United Arab Emirates and the region. And what a success it's been.

I am proud that we have steadily provided our local teams and world-recognised high-goal players the opportunity to compete in amazing venues. And have triumphed in fostering the passion of Polo in a new generation of UAE based players who we see compete on our fields year after year. And the best is yet to come.

Looking ahead as the newly-elected Chairman of the UAE Polo Federation, my plan is to transform the Sport of Kings into a pillar of sports tourism, contributing into the growth of our economy and the attractiveness of our city as a state-of-the-art sports destination.

My long-term goal is provide our youth with the support and encouragement to learn and become proficient in this sport, building for the first time a generation of world-class polo players in the UAE and the GCC.

I would like to recognize the hard work and dedication of my team. I am grateful for them. With the continued support of numerous prestigious sponsors, patrons, and polo enthusiasts, we were able to set a new benchmark year on year in the Middle East polo scene.

This high-goal season, I am delighted to welcome a new team – Clinova Polo, and the participation of one of the youngest teams in the region – AM Polo team. We can expect familiar faces on the field but the line-up of players from participating teams is something to watch out for as the patrons had taken on a new roster.

I wish all the teams the best of luck and I look forward to partaking in the action on the grounds of Al Habtoor Polo Resort and Club.

Here's to another successful Polo season!

NAIL YOUR Polo Outfit

Polo has long been associated with the fashion elite. The game attracts everything from stars, sports personalities to style icons. So, it is important to look your ultimate best.

MEN

Chinos are your go-to, guys. Choose light, summery shades such as pastels, white, beige and camel and pair with navy blue or olive. The polo is your chance to have some fun with colour and accessories, so don't be afraid of a pocket square, bow tie or a belt in a bold shade.

2 Gucci Belt
3 Gucci Loafers

WOMEN

Whether you opt for a pretty sundress, floating maxi dress, tailored trousers or comfortable culottes, the general rule here is smart and feminine. The polo is not necessarily the place to transfer over your race day outfit, nor is it the time to wear anything overtly sexy or tight. Think stylish summer picnic meets garden party and you can't go too far wrong. Colour-wise, steer clear of black if you can... White is always a good option as are pastels, neutrals and bold pops of colour.

SHOES

Stilettos are not a great idea at the polo. Not only will you sink into the grass at every step but you won't be particularly handy when it comes to the age-old tradition of stomping the divots. Instead, choose wedges, a block heel or a chic flat. You'll not only feel more comfortable but you won't get disapproving glances from those 'in-the-know'.

SIMPLE, HAPPY AND LIVING THE LIFE

ALFREDO CAPPELLA

They should always bring their passion into the sport and to the horses. They need to stay focused in the game, every aspect of it – from practice, getting to know your horses and learning the best way to play together, and to applying what you learned in each tournament.

You come from a family with a strong affinity to polo, when did you start playing the sport?

My uncle from my mother side, Hugo Barabucci, influenced me to start playing and I remember, I was 8 years old when I joined my first tournament – kids polo. We didn't win but you never forget your first tournament.

What are your polo pre-game preparations that are unique to you?

I like to start my day by spending time in the stables with the horses. I make sure I eat a full and healthy breakfast. I make sure I am physically and mentality ready for the game.

You've played in the most prestigious polo tournaments in the world, what has been the highlight of your sporting career?

I would say the highlight of my sporting career was when I first played in the Palermo Open. I was 18 years old then and we won.

Describe yourself in 3 words.

Three words? Tough, but I would say - Simple. Happy and Living the life.

Being one of top polo players in the sport, what do you think sets you apart from the others in your field?

I always try to have a calm state of mind and give the best of myself in every game and chukker.

What are your top 5 interests aside from polo?

I like play tennis in my spare time. I cannot exempt my love in being in the farm as this is a part of my day. Spending quality time with my family is something I also value. I enjoy a having a delicious dinner at home or in new places. And when the location and weather permits, I like spending time at the beach.

You have visited the UAE for several years now, what do you enjoy doing while you in the country?

I like going to restaurants to try different cuisines and have nice dinner.

You will be playing with one of the up and coming teams in the UAE this season, what can you say about the team line-up? Are there any teams you look forward to playing against?

I look forward to practicing with the team, we will get to know each other's game once we start playing, know our strengths and how we can use that as a strategy. I don't have a specific team that I look forward to competing against but given the line-up this season, I'm sure we will have intense games ahead.

Lastly, any key advise to upcoming and aspiring polo players?

They always bring their passion into the sport and to the horses. They need to stay focused in the game, every aspect of it – from practice, getting to know your horses and learning the best way to play together, and to applying what you learned in each tournament. As a team sport, they should be open to playing with other polo players who have their own set of skill, and knowing, in time, how to use it to the team's advantage.

Figurative & equine artist: PATSY McARTHUR

www.patsymcarthur.com

@patsymcarthur

In the studio with Powder boy & The Mesmerist

It's so important to spend time around horses if you want to make good art about them, to get a sense of them as individuals emotionally and to really understand the mechanics of how they move.

Please tell me a bit about your background, i.e. where you are from, what did you study at school.

I was born in the West of Scotland in 1976, and went to school in Glasgow before attending Gray's School of Art in Aberdeen in the 90s to study painting and subsequently gaining a Masters in Fine Art in Barcelona in 2000. Since then I have spent time living and working in Europe and doing artist residencies around the world before settling in Brighton, England where I have lived for the last ten years.

How did you start making art? And what or who inspired you to become an equestrian artist?

I drew prolifically as a child and always kept sketchbooks so it was a natural progression to study art at school, degree and Masters level. I am primarily a figurative artist; my work with the horse as subject runs parallel to my figurative work, and it was spending time at my sister's competition horse yard in Scotland that initially inspired me to start drawing the horse in motion, although I also rode myself as a child and teenager.

Describe a real-life situation that inspired you.

It was watching competition horses being lunged at my sister's yard that sparked my interest creatively. Without riders and saddles I was initially drawn to how free they seemed especially when being lunged over fences and even more so when I removed the fences from the drawings so that I was just left with the horse midair as imagery. There's such beauty in removing the context so you are simply left with the horse itself in motion.

What's integral to the work of being an equestrian artist?

It's so important to spend time around horses if you want to make good art about them, to get a sense of them as individuals emotionally and to really understand the mechanics of how they move.

What is your most important artist tool? Is there something you can't live without in your studio?

My most important tool in the studio is most definitely charcoal. I am a drawer foremost before being a painter and all the work I do with horses is large format charcoal drawing. I love how the drawings work in monochrome and the physical nature of charcoal means I can move it around to create blurred areas of movement as well as much tighter more defined areas of detail.

What does "being creative" mean to you?

Creativity for me is being fluid - being free to experiment with ideas, scale, techniques, subject matter and being alert to small sparks of interest that might lead me down unexpected paths.

What kind of creative patterns, routines or rituals do you have?

I try to meditate for at least 20 minutes every morning and am a big fan of journaling on waking to try to clear the brain of unhelpful fog. I also find my daily walk to and from the studio great for ideas and often listen to music while I move and just let my thoughts meander.

Is there a piece of artwork you are most proud of? Why?

Probably my favourite horse drawing from the last few years is The Great Beyond, of a skewbald pony straining to clear an invisible fence. She is jumping so joyously and with such spirit, and it's an image which translates into the human experience so well. It captures the heart and the imagination.

What is unique about your art, process and the way you want people to interact with it?

As both a figurative and equine artist, I'm interested in grace and freedom of movement. My process starts with photo shoots of horses usually being lunged without tack, over fences and I will work from photos or video stills from these shoots back in the studio. Through drawing, I'm trying to make really contemporary, emotional works which have as much to do with us as humans as they do with horses. My work is unique in that my horse drawings are very clean, monochrome and free of background context, which hopefully helps the viewer to focus on the motion and the emotion.
